

The mission of St. Augustine of Canterbury parish is to grow closer to Christ and to one another through worship, prayer, learning and service, and to dedicate our lives to serving Christ in the world through the power of the Holy Spirit.

The Seventeenth Sunday After Pentecost

And the Lord said, "Is it right for you to be angry? You are concerned about the bush... And should I not be concerned about Nineveh?"
Jonah 4:10-11

They grumbled, "These last worked only one hour, and you have made them equal to us who have borne the burden of the day." But he replied "Friend, I am doing you no wrong; did you not agree with me for the usual daily wage?"
Matthew 20:11-13

"It's Not Fair!"

What does this Sunday's Old Testament Reading and Sunday's Gospel have in common? Complaints. Grumbling. Jonah the prophet was angry and complaining to God that He was too merciful! He did not want the Ninevites to repent from their wickedness and receive God's mercy. (Jonah 3:10-4:1) Yet he became angry when God took away his protection of a small bush that had been protecting Jonah from the sun. God has other ideas, and questions Jonah's right to be angry about a bush when God was much more concerned with the salvation of a nation. (Jonah 4:4, 11)

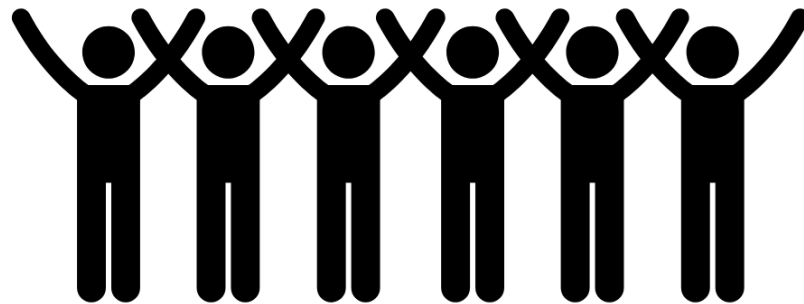

Now fast forward to Jesus sharing yet another parable – this one about laboring for a day's wages. Again, there was grumbling and complaining when those who worked the most got the same amount as those who worked the least. (Matthew 20:12) The grumblers wanted to focus on how unfair it was for the master to pay everyone the same wage. The master's reply was “Friend, I am doing you no wrong; did you not agree with me for the usual daily wage? I choose to give to this last the same as I give to you. Am I not allowed to do what I choose with what belongs to me? Or are you envious because I am generous?” (Matthew 20:13-15) This parable is an allegory about the wage for our souls, and that the Lord gives the same salvation to all, the last the same as the first. As we look to Christ, we can begin to glimpse a higher view of the God who constantly takes care of us – and also everyone else. The Bible is filled cover to cover with these accounts of God’s goodness. This week, let us be grateful for God’s goodness in our lives and in the lives of others – even when we feel they don’t deserve it.

Jesus Calms the Storm

Mark 4:35–41

Have you ever wondered where Jesus is when life suddenly becomes frightening or uncertain?

This Sunday, our children will step into one of the most dramatic moments in the Gospel of Mark. After a long day of teaching beside the Sea of Galilee, Jesus said to His disciples, “Let us go across to the other side.” They climbed into a boat and began their journey across the water. As they sailed, Jesus rested in the stern and fell asleep. Then, without warning, everything changed.

A violent windstorm swept across the sea. Waves crashed over the sides of the boat, and it began filling with water. Several of the disciples were experienced fishermen—they knew these waters and they knew storms—yet this one frightened them. Meanwhile, Jesus was still asleep. Overwhelmed, they woke Him and cried, “Teacher, do you not care that we are perishing?”

Jesus stood and spoke directly to the storm: “Peace! Be still!” And suddenly, the wind stopped. The waves settled. The chaos became calm. But then Jesus turned to His disciples and asked two questions: “Why are you afraid? Have you still no faith?” And the disciples were left asking a question of their own: “Who then is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?” That question will be at the heart of our lesson this Sunday.

Throughout our recent lessons, the children have been discovering Jesus a little more each week. They have seen Him notice people others might overlook, forgive sins, heal bodies, and respond with compassion. Now, in the middle of the Sea of Galilee, they will see something more: Jesus has authority even over creation itself.

We will also explore an important truth about faith. The disciples were following Jesus when the storm came. They were in that boat because Jesus had told them to cross the sea. Following Him did not prevent the storm—but it did mean they were never facing it alone. That gives us a meaningful lesson to share with our children. Faith does not mean pretending we are never afraid. It does not mean difficult things will never happen. Faith teaches us where to turn when they do.

When children face worries, disappointment, uncertainty, or situations they cannot control, they can talk to Jesus, bring Him their fears, and remember that His presence is not determined by how calm—or stormy—life happens to feel. And perhaps that is one of the most beautiful things about this story: before the disciples understood exactly who Jesus was, He was already in the boat with them.

This Sunday, we hope our children leave knowing a little more about the Jesus they are learning to trust—the One who is present in the calm, present in the storm, and worthy of our faith through both.

If you have children, grandchildren, neighbors, or know of a family who may be seeking a place where their children can grow in faith, learn the love of Christ, and feel a true sense of belonging, we warmly invite you to connect with our Sunday School ministry.

Please reach out to ministry leader Michelle Guancione for more information.

What is a Daughter of the King?

The Order of the Daughters of the King is an international group of Christian women who desire a closer walk with Christ. Upon admission, members take vows, promising to pray daily for their clergy and offering assistance in building up the spiritual life of the parish. Praying for others daily is our main focus. Our Lord is with us and we rely on Him to guide us.

Our chapter, St. Michael the Archangel, meets once a month on the 4th Saturday in the Parish Library. All women of the parish are invited to attend a meeting and learn what we are about. Our next meeting will be Saturday, September 26.

Please contact Nancy Kelly (President) for more information.

Let a Daughter Pray for YOU!

The Daughters of the King now have a prayer ministry after the 10 am service. One or two of the Daughters will remain in the Sanctuary seated in the pews where the Sunday School children sit, to offer individual prayers that are private and confidential for anyone who wishes.

FEED THE LAMBS ENRICHMENT PROGRAM

Feed The Lambs Volunteer Opportunity!

Hi, my name is Anne Bourne. I have been a parishioner at St. Augustine's for about 3 years. I am looking for volunteers for Feed the Lambs.

In our effort to help these children, every day there is a folder of worksheets focusing on basic math, reading, language arts and phonics skills for each grade level to reinforce skills they are learning in school. From second grade up almost all of the worksheets have answer sheets available.

In addition to the worksheets, there are literally hundreds of games available to reinforce the same skills- math tic-tac-toe games, 5 in a row reading skills games, slide & climb (Chutes & Ladders) phonics games, bingo games related to reading material from that week, and many more. Our first priority is to assist with homework. Once that is done, I find a combination of worksheets and games works best.

The elementary grade students are only there for about an hour or so each afternoon, so it's a commitment of about 6 hrs a week, but it's six hours that can really make a difference. My goal is one adult for each grade level.

If you think you might be interested, please contact me. Thank you!
