

“The mission of St. Augustine of Canterbury parish is to grow closer to Christ and one another through worship, prayer, learning and service, and to dedicate our lives to serving Christ in the world through the power of the Holy Spirit.”

“The Voice of His Praise”

We all know how to cry out to God when things go wrong, but how about when things go right? When there is an answer to prayer? When a miracle occurs? When we are healed? Do we pause to “turn around” and thank God? There is so much that is already said on the subject of thanking God, that there is no need to belabor the point here, except to say that it is all too easy sometimes to carry on without much of a thought of gratitude to God specifically when something good happens.

In this week’s Gospel we see the ten lepers who are healed and only one turned back to thank Jesus. (See Luke 17:11-19) We know that this is important because Jesus actually makes note of it. Frequently, after a period of time when we have been crying out “have mercy!” like those lepers (Luke 17:13) and our situation resolves, our attitude can immediately switch as we simply move on without missing a beat or truly stopping to give God our undivided attention and spend some time thanking Him.

It is said that only one of the lepers “when he saw that he was healed, turned back, praising God with a loud voice”. (Luke 17:15) Not only did he turn back to give thanks, but he did it with a loud voice! Sometimes, giving thanks verbally, out loud whether there is anyone around to hear us or not, is a great way for us to invest ourselves in the act of giving thanks. By stopping what we are doing and taking this time and energy to say “thank you” helps us enter into what the Bible calls “the sacrifice of praise”. (Hebrews 13:16) It is called a sacrifice, because we have to take the time, expend the energy and for a moment, make that the most important thing that we do, sacrificing all else, no matter what else might be tugging at us and competing for our attention.

Maybe stopping to read Scripture, like the psalm that we have in this week’s readings can also help us to enter into that state of gratitude that could open us to develop a new habit of pausing to acknowledge the work of God in our lives. Or it could something as simple as to sit for a moment taking some deep breaths and thanking God out loud, even with a loud voice! By spending time in this way, it helps us cultivate new habits of gratefulness, get out of a negative mindset and helps us to truly acknowledge God’s help in our lives on a “day by day” or even a “moment by moment” basis. What might have escaped our attention today that can be a real opportunity to pause, “turn back”, and praise God?

Operation Christmas Child is a global project run by Samaritan's Purse, a Christian humanitarian organization led by Franklin Graham. Since 1993, the program has encouraged individuals, families, churches, and community groups to fill shoeboxes with small gifts—such as toys, school supplies, personal care items, and notes of encouragement. These shoeboxes are collected, processed, and then distributed to children in need around the world, often in areas affected by poverty, conflict, or natural disaster. Delivered into the hands of children through local churches, every shoebox gift is an opportunity to share about our Lord Jesus Christ and God's redeeming love for them.

Please sign up in the Narthex and join us on Saturday, October 25 at 9 am in the Parish Hall to package 100 shoebox gifts for these precious children!

Sunday School

An Angel Visits Joseph

This week in Sunday School, our children will hear the story of the angel visiting Joseph in a dream. Joseph was a kind and righteous man, engaged to Mary, but he was unsure of what to do when he learned she was expecting a child. While he was considering everything in his heart, God sent an angel to him in a dream with an important message: "Do not be afraid to take Mary as your wife. The child she carries is from the Holy Spirit, and you are to name Him Jesus, for He will save His people from their sins." Joseph listened, trusted God, and obeyed, choosing faith over fear.

Through this story, the children will learn that God often asks us to trust Him even when we don't fully understand His plan. Joseph's faith and obedience remind us that God is always at work, keeping His promises and guiding us with love and wisdom.

Like Joseph, we can choose to trust God's direction in our lives, knowing that His plans are always greater than our own.

Please Come Join Us!

Sunday School meets Sunday at 10 am in the last classroom at the end of the hall in the Christian Education Wing. Ages K-8 are welcome. Come with your friends and make new ones too!

If you have kids, grandkids, neighbors, or anyone that might be interested in Sunday School, please contact ministry leader Michelle Guancione.

This Sunday!

"As Jesus entered a village, ten lepers approached him. Keeping their distance, they called out, saying, "Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!" ...and as they went, they were made clean. Then one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, praising God with a loud voice. Then Jesus asked, "Were not ten made clean? But the other nine, where are they? Then he said to him, "Get up and go on your way; your faith has made you well."

Episcopal Church Women

"We aspire to be a Godspark - shining and sharing the love of Christ!"

In our parish we offer fellowship and hospitality by reaching out to people in need and serving in our church ministries.

You are an Episcopal Church Woman!

If you attend this church you are an Episcopal Church Woman, a woman in the ECW! This is not a club. You do not pay dues. We are all just part of a women's ministry.

As a ministry, the Episcopal Church Women host a variety of monthly events and hold two fundraisers annually, the Fashion Show and the Arts & Crafts Show. The profits are distributed among other ministries inside our parish and in our Diocese.

We are part of a Christian foundation started in 1871 at the National level and are in Province IV in the Diocese of Central Florida and are located in the SE Deanery.
