CANTERBURY TALES | October 8, 2026

St. Augustine of Canterbury Episcopal Church

The mission of St. Augustine of Canterbury parish is to grow closer to Christ and to one another through worship, prayer, learning and service, and to dedicate our lives to serving Christ in the world through the power of the Holy Spirit.

Moments of FAITH, REFLECTION and INSPIRATION

We're excited to share the first in a new series of short messages from Father Wes and Father Tyler, offering MOMENTS OF FAITH, REFLECTION and INSPIRATION that we can carry with us into our everyday lives.

We begin with "Truth."

Take a few minutes to watch, reflect, and share with someone who might need this message today. Watch here!

We hope you'll join us as this series continues.

Bishop's Visit - Sunday, December 6, 2026

You have probably heard by now that Bishop Holcomb is coming to St. Augustine's December 6th! This means that we will be offering Confirmation, Reception, and Reaffirmation. Here are the details.

CONFIRMATION

Our prayerbook catechism defines confirmation as "the rite in which we express a mature commitment to Christ, and receive strength from the Holy Spirit through prayer and the laying on of hands by a bishop." There are two main components to confirmation.

First, it is for people who want to express a mature commitment to Christ. Maybe you have been attending church for a few years and are wondering what the next step is. Maybe you were baptized as an infant and you want to claim your faith as your own and express your own commitment. Maybe you have been going to church your whole life and have realized lately how important the Christian faith is and want to dive deeper into it. Expressing a mature commitment to Christ through confirmation is a perfect step for anyone in these positions (and many more positions!). If you are having trouble discerning whether confirmation is a good next step for you please reach out to Fr. Wes or Fr. Tyler!

Second, in confirmation you receive strength from the Holy Spirit and the laying on of hands by the bishop. In the bible, the laying on of hands is a sacramental act that imparts the presence and power of the Holy Spirit. This is why the bishop lays hands on someone when he ordains them; why in our healing service we lay hands on the person we are praying for; and why the bishop lays hands on confirmands to pray for them.

If you would like to be confirmed, we will be beginning a confirmation class Sunday, October 25th at 9:00am during the Christian education hour in the Library. The class will last five weeks followed by one evening commitment to do a rehearsal for the confirmation service. In the class, we will cover the big picture biblical narrative, the Episcopal church's liturgy and sacraments, and talk about what confirmation means.

RECEPTION

Reception is for anyone who has already been confirmed in a different Christian tradition but would like to be received into the Episcopal church.

When the Bishop receives someone into the Episcopal church he lays his hands on them and says, “We recognize you as a member of the one holy catholic and apostolic church, and we receive you into the fellowship of this Communion. God, the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, bless, preserve, and keep you.”

Reception is a great option for anyone who has found their church home in the Episcopal church and would like to recognize their new home in the Episcopal church in a formal way. Those wanting to be received will also need to attend the class beginning Sunday, October 25.

REAFFIRMATION

Reaffirmation is available to anyone who has been already confirmed or received into the Epsicopal church. This is a special opportunity for the Bishop to pray for you during the Confirmation service. There are no class requirements, the only requirement is that you be at the service!

NEWCOMERS

Finally, newcomers! If you are new to St. Augustine’s we invite you to take your first step in becoming a member at St. Augustine’s by attending the confirmation class beginning Sunday, October 25th. Because of the content of the class it is a great newcomers class as well. It will also be an opportunity for newcomers to discern if they would like to participate in Confirmation as they learn more about the Episcopal church.

FOR ALL INTERESTED

If you have discerned that you would like to be confirmed or received into the Episcopal Church, PLEASE SIGN UP in the Narthex! Place a check mark under Confirmation, Reception, or Newcomers on the sign up sheet.

The Worship of the Golden Calf

This is a bible story that we have all heard, and yet, there might be a bit of a "disconnect" as we may think that it has absolutely nothing to do with us and our 21st century lives today. After all, who would worship a golden calf? Who would melt down their jewelry today for this purpose? Why does this story still matter and how is it relevant in how we live today? It is easy to look at the Israelites in this story and look down on them, as we might feel that we would have never done such a thing. But as we look closer, we may see if we are honest, that this is not entirely true. There are many modern parallels today that can take the place of this idea of the golden calf. How about when we pray for something and do not receive an answer? We assume God is not there. As we are people who are designed to worship God, when we feel that God is not available, we will worship something. What would that be for us? Would it be money, a relationship, a person, a job, drugs, alcohol, Netflix, or any other poor substitute for the God who made us and gives us life? Through the years as each of us looks back, we can all find instances of these poor substitutes when we feel that God is distant, not paying attention to us, or perpetually absent from our lives. We will find something to worship and put on a pedestal.

Fortunately, there is a better ending to this bible story. When God threatens to destroy his people for worshiping the golden calf, Moses interceded for the people and convinced God to relent and not bring about any disasters. Moses' argument was that that it should never be said that the mighty God who brought His people miraculously out of Egypt did it to destroy them later in the wilderness. As the psalmist begins in Psalm 106, "Hallelujah! Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good, for his mercy endures for ever." Above all, God is the one who gives life, unlike an obsession or a wrong focus which can ruin our lives. God is the one who is good, and shows mercy when we stray. The takeaway for us is no matter where we have created poor substitutes for God in our lives, we can always choose to turn away from it and receive His mercy for a brand new start. We can then begin the process of rebuilding our lives with God taking the rightful place as the object of our worship.

Jesus Feeds the Five Thousand

Have you ever looked at a situation and thought, There just isn't enough? Not enough time, not enough resources, not enough ability to make a difference? This week in Sunday School, our children will explore Jesus Feeds the Five Thousand from John 6:1–14, a familiar miracle with a powerful message about what can happen when we trust Jesus with what we have.

A huge crowd had followed Jesus, and as He looked at the thousands of people gathered before Him, He knew they were hungry. The disciples immediately saw a problem. Philip wondered how they could possibly afford enough bread for so many people, while Andrew found a boy who had brought just five barley loaves and two fish. Compared with the needs of such an enormous crowd, it seemed like almost nothing. Yet Jesus took what was available, gave thanks to God, and distributed the food. Everyone ate as much as they wanted, and when the meal was over, the disciples gathered twelve baskets of leftovers.

One of the beautiful lessons in this story is that Jesus noticed the people's need before they ever asked Him for food. He cared not only about teaching them, but also about something as ordinary as their hunger. The disciples focused on what they lacked, but Jesus already knew what He would do. What looked hopelessly insufficient to them became more than enough in His hands.

This week, we will help our children think about what that means in their own lives. Sometimes we may believe that what we have to offer is too small to matter—our time, our abilities, a kind word, a helping hand, or simply a willingness to serve. The boy's meal seemed small too, but it became part of something extraordinary. We want our children to understand that they do not have to be older, stronger, more talented, or have something impressive to offer before God can use them. We can bring Jesus what we have, give with a willing heart, and trust Him with what comes next.

And perhaps that is a reminder for all of us: instead of looking only at what we do not have and asking, “How could this possibly be enough?” we can place what we do have in God's hands and faithfully allow Him to use it according to His purposes.

If you have children, grandchildren, neighbors, or know of a family who may be seeking a place where their children can grow in faith, learn the love of Christ, and feel a true sense of belonging, we warmly invite you to connect with our Sunday School ministry.

Please reach out to ministry leader Michelle Guancione for more information.

The DOK attends Fall Assembly in Melbourne

Four members of the daughters of the king attended the fall assembly at Holy Trinity Episcopal Church Melbourne, on October 3. Bishop Holcomb presided over the Eucharist and stayed to have lunch with us. Our guest speaker was the Reverend Sarah Bronos. Approximately 200 Daughters attended, including Nancy Kelly, the first vice president of the Central Florida Diocese who proudly participated in the Banner Procession during the Eucharist. She also led the memorial service by placing blue carnations in a vase to represent each Daughter in our diocese who had passed away this year.
